

The Story Behind the "Hail Mary" Football Handbag

Kimberly Vaughn
Washington Redskins Cheerleader

to represent them at the 2007 Pro Bowl in Hawaii where this handbag made its debut. Becoming all the rage in the NFL community, its popularity has grown to encompass college, high school and even pee-wee football fans everywhere!

Tonya Helman
San Diego Chargers Cheerleader

Designer, Kimberly Vaughn, took her passion for NFL Cheerleading to the streets and designed a must have handbag for every football fan!

While attending 12 years of football games watching Kimberly cheer, Catherine, her mother, always found herself caught up in the spirit of the game which sparked an idea. With this inspiration, the ladies grew their concept into creation and the Hail Mary handbag was formed!

After 8 years with the Washington Redskins Cheerleaders, Kimberly, a Captain of the squad, was chosen by her teammates

Redskins Themed Hail Mary Handbag

This handbag was custom designed for football fanatics--the boutique handbag is crafted in genuine leather and its lined interior has pockets for helpful storage. Show your spirit! The purse is perfect for the addition of a unique flourish highlighting your favorite team's colors, mascot, or chosen team member's number-- the possibilities are endless. Being able to interchange the ribbons, makes the handbag dynamic for any team!

Kimberly Vaughn
Washington Redskins Cheerleader

Burke, VA 22015

www.StCatherinesBoutique.com
St.Catherines@StCatherinesBoutique.com

Directors

Catherine H. Linberger (East Coast) 703.503.8835
C. Kimberly Vaughn (West Coast) 619.934.1320
C. Meredith Hummel (International) 011 49 9841 682 3794